

How Lucky Got His Shoe

How Lucky Got His Shoe

Karen B. Winnick

Karen B. Winnick

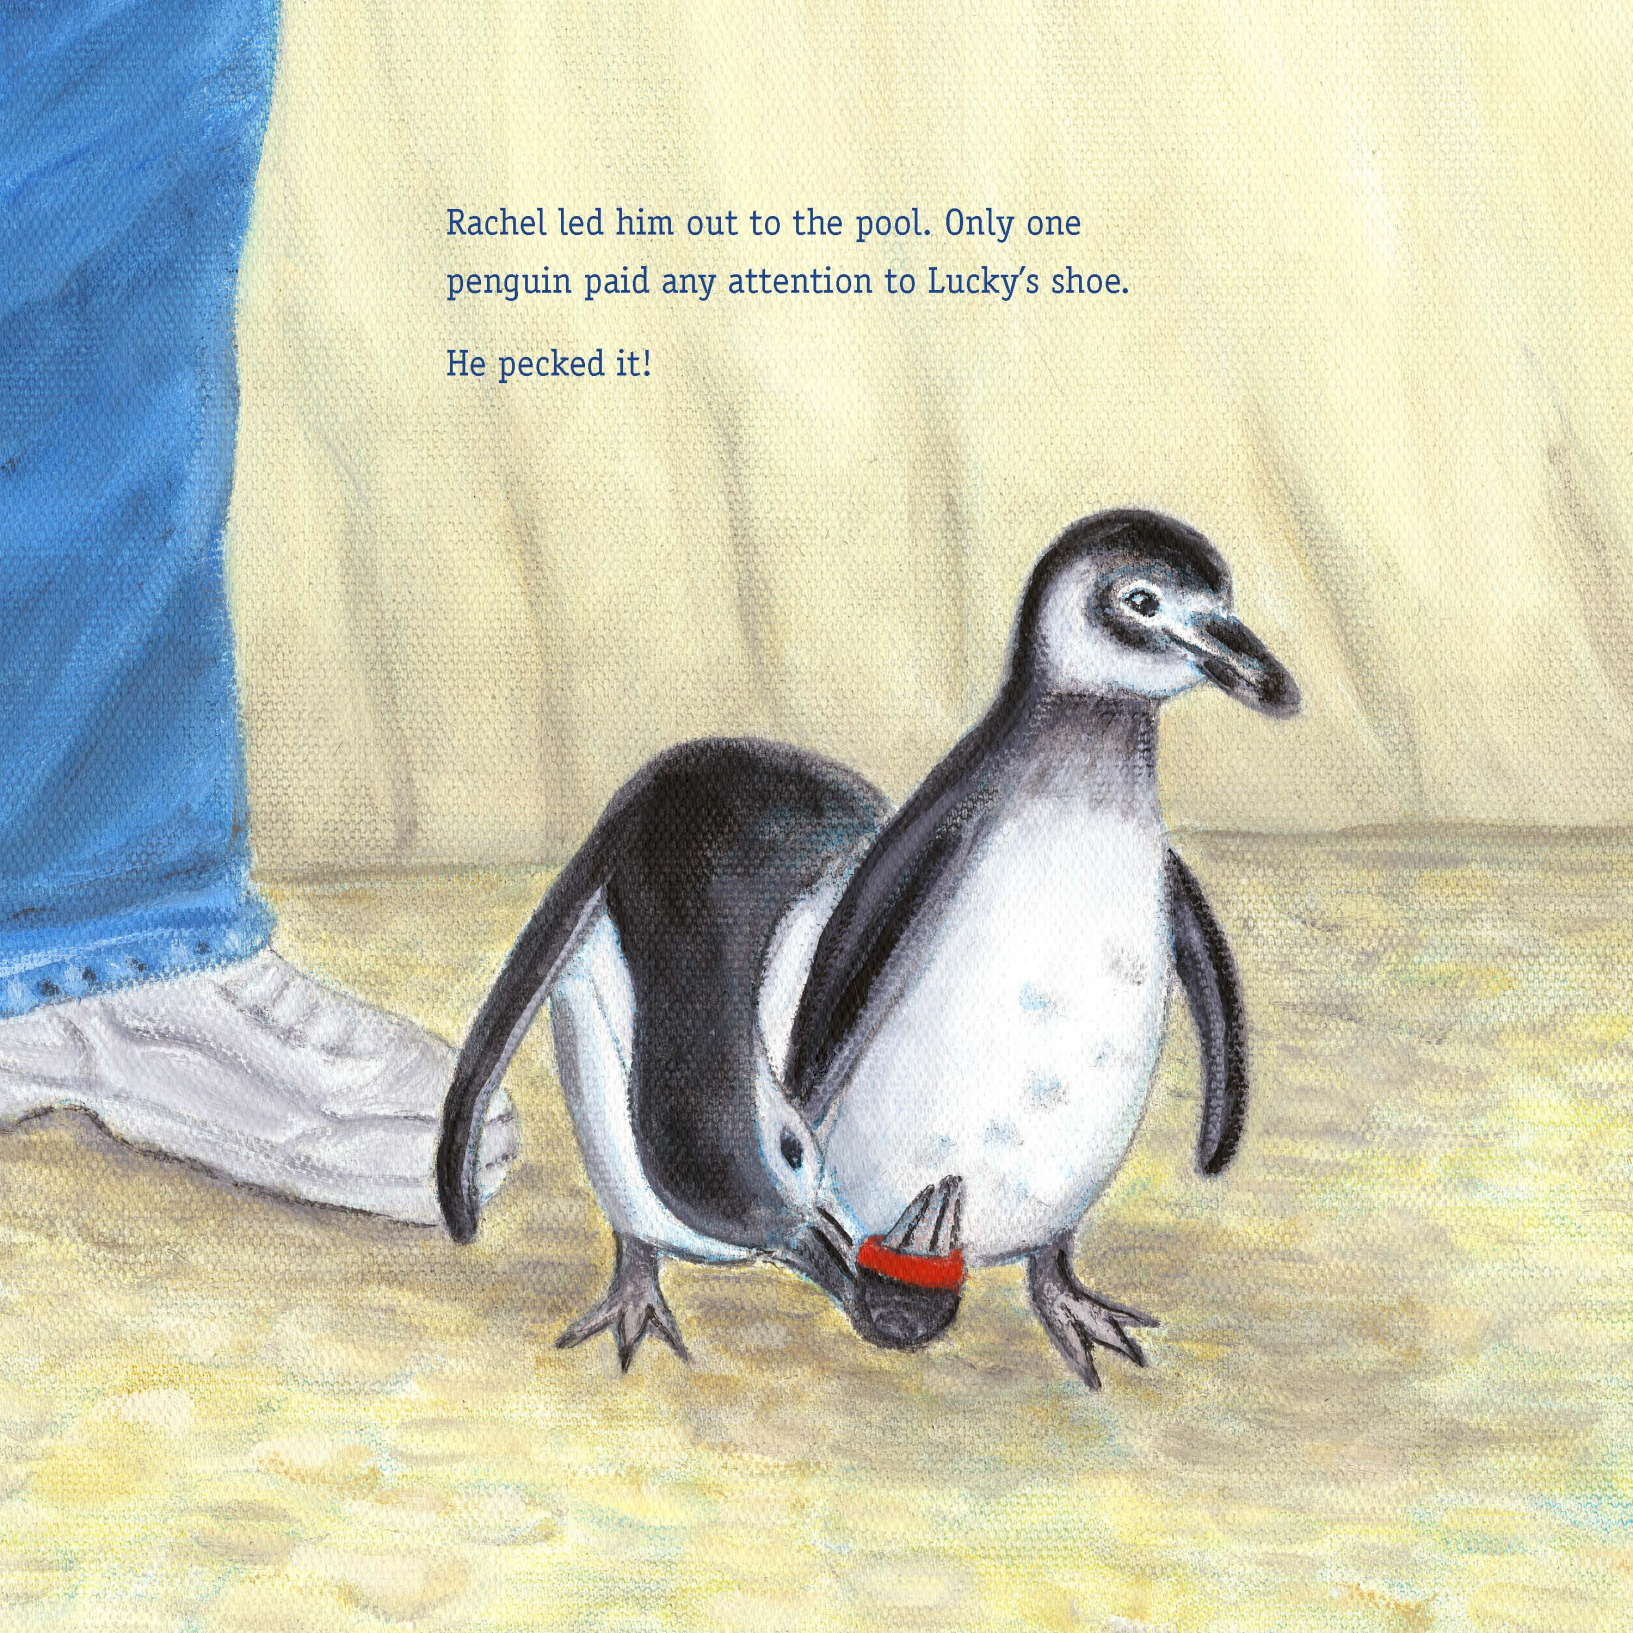

Rachel fed fish to the parents. Each one took turns coughing up their half-digested fish. They pushed it into the mouth of the hungry chick. The baby penguin ate and ate. He grew and grew.

Rachel led him out to the pool. Only one penguin paid any attention to Lucky's shoe.

He pecked it!

Lucky took off!

He walked and walked and walked.

He waddled all around the yard.

That's how Lucky got his shoe...and his name, too!

